By signing this release form I,, acknowledge that Brussels Airlines has duly informed me of the risks of air travel for my dog and/or cat.

I understand that brachycephalic animals suffer from a significant risk of mortality during transportation on board of an aircraft due to respiratory distress, injury or sickness as a consequence of their breathing difficulty.

Consequently, I, as owner of the animal or on his behalf, fully discharge Brussels Airlines, its agents, subcontractors and insurers if the animal suffers from this condition during the carriage and/or leads to injury or mortality of the latter during transportation and expressly renounce to any claim except if I demonstrate that the injury or mortality has another origin for which Brussels Airlines could be liable.
